Mike's Musings

Monday's meeting was, by all accounts, as engaging and entertaining a footy evening as always. All credit to the Williamses for their usual sterling performances.

Part of fandom, of belonging to something that excites us, is the joy of sharing it with others. It is normal, if we are of a generous spirit, to want to share things that bring us happiness. There is a darker side to fandom. It is possible to use our knowledge as a weapon, to wield our expertise in a game of one-upmanship with others and to belittle those who aren't as clued in as we are. It's important that we use our knowledge to include, rather than exclude.

Our upcoming volunteer night is an opportunity to share our experience of Rotary with others. Invite a guest in the same way you'd invite them to your house for a meal. When you have a dinner party, you want your guests to look forward to it, to enjoy the time they spend in your home and to look forward to the next time you can get together.

We have another chance to share our love of Rotary. There's a Whitehorse Spring Festival on Sunday, October 21 and the cluster has a stall. Please contact me if you can spend some time spreading the word.

Mark your calendars with the following:

- Friday, 5 October FFFF (First Friday Film Fellowship)
- Saturday, 13 October Blackburn Market
- Sunday, 14 October Whitehorse Farmers Market
- Sunday, 21 October Whitehorse Spring Festival
- Monday, 29 October Bucatini night
- Monday, 12 November New Members Night (Good Potential Recruits Required)
- Friday, 16 November Peridot Night - Sylvia
- Saturday, 17 November weekend Relay for Life (contact me if you're interested)
- Monday, 26 November RCFH's Youth Achievement Awards

Club Meeting Report 1 October

11 members in assorted footy colours were in attendance + Special visitor Nancy + a bear in North Melbourne colours and sporting a Rotary badge. Stuart acted as President because Mike was celebrating his daughter Morgan's 21st. Stuart gave an appropriate footy reflection (see below). Our guest speaker did not appear so the night could focus on football.

John McPhee was in the chair. Bob L reported on a possible repeat club visit to the Walter and Eliza Hall Institute (WEHI)(see later). Warwick called for names for the November membership night. Stuart is trying RC Boronia for the transport of school items, Sue is seeking nominations for Pride of Workmanship. Sergeant Bob was in in FINE form.

There was a preamble (See below)

There was music- Up there Cazaly, good old Collingwood but the Eagles theme song went the way of the Magpies banner on Saturday. Stuart distributed a questionnaire on Football names – when you hear the first name, who do you automatically think of. (see Below) There were plenty of choccies earned although one unnamed person resorted to her phone-shame.

The awards were duly presented as per the Financials below

The annual prize for best dressed on the red carpet went to Sue- triple dressing-49ers, Melbourne Storm and a Hawthorn onesy!!

The raffle raised $43 and the fines contributed towards $100 for the Blue Ribbon Appeal.

Reflection:

How good is Melbourne during Grand Final week? The city bubbles, everyone becomes a footy expert and has an opinion on who will be premiers. The Agricultural show is on, the weather might be warm and football supporters, often from interstate, move around the city.

This year we even had an aberration. Many ABC supporters (Anyone But Collingwood) were not anti the Magpies due to the approach of the team and the coach. We admired their courage and skill and took an interest in how Nathan Buckley had changed his persona.

The game was one for the ages, a wonderful contest. Collingwood tired, made some mistakes and eventually West Coast kicked enough goals to sneak a win. There was a little gloating that Collingwood had failed again. Most people admired their endeavour and demeanour and hope they will get a chance for redemption next year.

Now, everyone's diet can change from football and Collingwood to more nutritious fare.

Stuart

Our brief preamble for our Footy Night 2018

Stuart : We are not going to call for a Royal Commission into the Missing Footy night. We haven't stopped work like the ABC.

In a world of statistical mumbo jumbo and inflated numbers of worthless possessions, we thought the certainty of the Footy Night would give our Rotary lives some meaning. In football- everything is complicated by the presence of the opposite team. Football is a hard thing. Violent on the body, consuming of the mind, and brutal on the dark night of the soul... as any Melbourne member can attest.

Bob: Thanks for your concern, compassion and handkerchief. Stuart, you have told me so many times that you umpired over 200 games. How many decisions did you get right in that time?

Stu: oh – 3.

Bob—I do need to make a small announcement to those assembled tonight. If any-one, during this segment, would like to get out of their UMPIRE'S Chair, and rush out to the desk and give Bob, a “Nick Kyrious poor didums cuddle”—that's OK.

Now on with the Awards-- We know that SPORT is the dessert trolley of life.

Therefore, I need you members and honorary members to encourage your neighbours, sons and daughters, and any one else to come and find out, at no cost to them. For further information and bookings, contact Warwick (wstott@netspace.net.au) or Bill (bjmarsh@bigpond.net.au)
