Mike's Musings

Short and sweet this week:

We're starting the year with a great speaker, Indi Hangan. I encourage members to invite guests to this one. It's another fantastic example of the lasting, positive effects our projects and interactions with young people produce.

We're also going to welcome John Bindon back to the club. John's return to us is evidence of the esteem in which members hold the club and the organisation and proof that there are many levels of involvement with Rotary. We all go through different phases in our lives and there are times when, no matter how much we value Rotary, we must take a step back to focus on family or work. There will always be the requirement for work in service of others; being willing to accept help when it's available and in the form it is offered is important.

Please mark your calendars with the following:

Sunday, 13 January	Whitehorse Farmers Market (See Warwick's email for roster)
Monday, 14 January	First dinner meeting of the new year—Indi Hangan speaking.
Friday, 1 February	First Friday Film Fellowship
Friday, 8 February	Peridot Night Brilliant Lies, David Williamson
Saturday, 9 February	Blackburn Market
Sunday, 10 February	Whitehorse Farmers Market
Weekend, 16-17 February	Rotary Multi District Conference (Peace Forum on Friday the 15th)

New Year best wishes

The club has received best wishes from Magdalena Ojeda from Box Hill Institute, Ashley Beh, former Ford Davis awardee, Gary Davis, and Catherine Smith from RYDA.

Barbecue at Mike and Kira's

What a great night we had. Many thanks to our generous hosts and to all who contributed.
